7ᵗʰ Grade Internet Safety Questions

Name:

Directions: Use the sites that are listed on the class website (mrminger.weebly.com) to answer these questions. You can use one word, a short phrase or a complete sentence. What ever works to answer the question or fill-in-the-blank.

Site #1: Password Safety

1. Is it ok to give out your password to your best friend? Why or why not?

2. What is the FBI recommending to use rather than simply a password?

3. What else can you include in your password besides just letters?

4. What do you call a program that generates a password for you?

Site #2: Reputable Sources

5. What sites are a good starting point when doing research?

6. If the article has a bunch of _____ links, this should raise a red flag.

7. You can also check the author's _____ to see if that person is reliable.

8. What does TLD stand for?

Site #3: Cyberbullying

9. What is the main difference between bullying and cyberbullying?

10. Name ONE (there are multiple answers here) specific place where cyberbullying often takes place.

The site gives three special concerns about cyberbullying. What are these?

11.

12.

13.

Site #4: Social Media

14. According to the article, what percentage of teenagers visit social networking sites on a daily basis?

15. The article gives several positive aspects of social media on teenagers. Name one.

The article has a section that is entitles "How parents can help teens and Tech." Name two suggested strategies it gives for teens on social media.

16.
17.

Site #5: Texting Etiquette

Name three of the simple rules for text messaging etiquette

18.

19.

20.